Commodore's Comments

Dear Friends,

She did it again! Angie Traupman and her committee outdid themselves with great vittles, a jail big enough to hold lots of outlaws, and enough decorations to furnish a dude ranch! Nice goin' guys and gals!

Sue and I took Brownie, our cow and met a small band of members and guests for dinner and great dancing. Thanks, everyone, for a great evening.

Be sure to look for our next event. And don't forget the all members Board meeting downstairs at the Clearwater Yacht Club on Monday, August 19th at 7:00 pm. The next Board meeting is still scheduled for July 29th downstairs at CYC at 7:00 pm.

Have a great August.

Scott Moncrieff, Commodore

July Event—Country Western Party

The IEYC's Country Western Party took place Saturday, July 20, 2019 at the Brookfield Clubhouse in Clearwater. Committee members included Angie Traupman, Joan Landreth, Mary Reinhardt, Jean and Scott Sanders, and Patti and Jim Ostrosky.

Upon entering the room, the IEYC jail was framed by prickly pear and saguaro cacti, western barrels, guns, dynamite, snakes and other western paraphernalia. Outlaw posters with pictures and crimes committed by all attendees were scattered on tables. Members and guest received their nametags and found they now belonged to either the Earp or Clanton family, and some were even outlaws!

The night began with appetizers including shrimp cocktail, barbeque pork tenderloin, veggies with ranch dressing, a meat and cheese tray, and fresh fruit. Angie Traupman welcomed all members and guests. Commodore Scott Moncrieff invited Elaine Horn to introduce her two guest, Joyce Orebraugh and Rebecca Fowler. Kristen and Steve Vincelli graciously provided the music and were a big part of the entertainment along with their sons, Isaac and Nic. They brought Kristen's sister Diana Riddle and her aunt, Lisa Miller.

Sonny's ribs, pulled chicken, mac and cheese, green bean and coleslaw did not disappoint our appetites as well as salad, corn muffins and garlic bread! Desserts included mini cupcakes and cookies.

Soon after dinner line dancing began with Kristen teaching "Red Neck Girl." Paul Lightfoot proved his name (light on his feet) as he 2-stepped with Barb Loubier, Joan Landreth, Angie Traupman and yes, Gene Traupman. Many dressed in western attire, Mary and Arnie wore western hats, holsters made to hold beer, and vests. Sue Moncrieff was adorned with an intricately beaded necklace and western vest. Scott Moncrieff brought his own cow's head. Gene Traupman wore a Dallas Cowboy jersey?!

Music continued throughout the evening as the Sheriff (Steve Vincelli) and his deputies (Nic and Isaac) arrested 7 outlaws and placed them in the IEYC jail. The Earps and Clantons gathered in to their perspective families. The teams them competed to earn $10,000 bail money before the outlaws could break out of jail. The outlaws won by breaking out of jail before bail was made by either family. The competition proved to be a fun time for all.

Time flew by and soon the evening concluded. Thanks to ALL who stayed to help. Special thanks to Kirsten and Steve Vincelli, Katie Traupman, Joan Landreth, Mary Reinhardt, and Gene Traupman. Also, not in attendance, but helping with decorations were Scott and Jean Sanders.

June Island Girls Luncheon—Lunch & Learn

On June 25th, Mary Reinhardt hosted the Island Girls Lunch and Learn. We met in the community room of her condo at 51 Island Way. Ten Island Girls attended: Barbara Loubier, Elaine Horn, Jan Nagy, Mary Reinhardt, Vivian Smith, who brought her beautiful daughter and granddaughter, Christina and Grace, Mary Lou Spoto, Angie Traupman; and Kristen Vincelli, our energetic and enthusiastic line dance instructor.

The luncheon included Chicken Salad Chick’s Cranberry Kelli (a mixture of dried, sweetened cranberries and slivered almonds), Olivia’s Old South (a southern tradition combining sweet pickles and eggs), and egg salad, along with crackers, chips, pickles, iced tea and water. Mary provided homemade brownies and a yummy raspberry dessert for a sweet ending to our lunch. Catching up with friends and meeting new family members was a great start to a delightful luncheon.

Soon after lunch, we cleared room for learning the line dances, “Red Neck Girl” and “Neon Moon” parts 1 7 2. Both were recorded, placed on YouTube and sent to the attendees to practice for the Country Western Party held Saturday, July 20th. The videos can be viewed on:
