

ISLAND ESTATES YACHT CLUB

August 2018

Commodore's Comments

We had a group of members at the Beachcomber Restaurant on Saturday night even though the weather was a little damp. Joan and Bob Landreth were the hosts and we were seated in a nice area with five tables and the food was great. Joan then had some surprise give-a-ways.

We are looking forward to our bus trip in September to the Ringling Museum in Sarasota hosted by Jim and Patricia Ostrosky.

Dinner at the Beachcomber

On Saturday evening, August 25th, 30 members and guests gathered at the Beachcomber for a wonderful dinner. It was a great time to catch up and chat about our doings so far this summer. The food was fabulous and the company even better. Even though the stormy weather, which gave us a little lightning show, got most of us a bit wet, we all had a wonderful time.

See you all very soon!

September Outing to the Ringling Museum

You should have made your reservations by now. This promises to be a very interesting venue and event.

A Note from our October Progressive Dinner Chair

Our very popular progressive dinner is set for Saturday, October 20th. It promises to be a delicious dinner and great "get together."

However, we are in need of 2 more houses or condos on Island Estates to accommodate 6 or more guests for dinner only. A fully prepared dinner and wine will be given to you. All you need to do is warm it up and set a nice table! Then proceed to the dessert home for treats and coffee.

This is a wonderful way to meet and enjoy your fellow members and meet new friends. If you have questions, call Jan Nagy (727-444-4477). Attention new members, please get involved. We are a social, working club and we need YOU!
