Commodore's Comments

Great time, great food, fabulous friends – that about sums it up! Cinco de Mayo was great thanks to Vivian and Tom Smith, who hosted the event at the Lighthouse Condo on Sand Key.

Be sure to get on board for the next event – a sunset cruise on a sailing catamaran! Check out the Scuttlebutt for details.

So far, it has been a fabulous year thanks to a great Board and Bridge!

See you soon,

Scott Moncrieff, Commodore

May Event: Cinco de Mayo

Bright sunshine turning to sunset and the following afterglow accompanied by a gentle breeze was the perfect backdrop for the May 4th Cinco de Mayo Fiesta party at the Lighthouse Towers Cabana on the pool deck. The event was truly a group effort with everyone bringing their favorite Mexican dishes to share.

Mucho Gracias to committee members: The Traupman's...Angie, Gene and Katie for coming early to help get things set up and decorate...AND for the fabulous and fun photo booth!!! Watch for photos taken by our own professional photographer, Gary Bookout. Mary Reinhardt gave her artistic theme touches to the party flyer and name tags. Behind the scenes in their absence Paul Lightfoot and Barbara Loubier shared their ice chest to assist with making sure we had plenty of ice for cold water and yes, ice cold Mexican beer and of course the yummy frozen margaritas. It was a very relaxing outdoor tropical evening enjoyed by IEYC members and guests.

April Island Girls Luncheon

The Island Girls held their gathering on April 30th at Alfresco's Café in Dunedin. The ladies had a lovely time chatting, getting to know one another more intimately, laughing, and sharing stories of our lives and happenings of our lives in Florida. It is so interesting to learn how many of us actually got to move here.

Attending were Emma Jean Sanders, Sue Speck, Jan Nagy, Sara Speck and Barbara Gipson. Ladies, all members of the IEYC are invited to join us and experience the wonderful times we all enjoy sharing our "Girl Time" together.

At times our group is small, sometimes large, depending on the availability of the girls, - we have shared meeting at so many new dining experiences.

So 'til next time,

Love and God Bless.

Jan Nagy—April Hostess
