

ISLAND ESTATES YACHT CLUB

October 2017

Commodore's Comments

The Island Estates Yacht Club has gone through many changes recently with Commodore Mary moving to Ocala to be near family. I wish them happiness in their new home. That pushed me up from Vice Commodore to taking me on my next challenge, hopefully I will not disappoint our very special club.

Due to hurricane Irma, I had to make a difficult decision to cancel the White Elephant Auction, which will I'm sure happen next year. The Progressive Dinner had to be changed to a facility that could handle a large group since some homes needed repairs. I am happy to report the dinner at Alfano's was truly fantastic. We were once again together enjoying all our friendships. I would like to thank Jan Nagy, Mary Reinhardt, Gene and Angie Traupman for their help.

We will have a social planning meeting on Monday, October 30, 2017 at 7:00 PM at Clearwater Yacht Club in the Dry Dock. Bring your ideas to make our events special.

Our Annual Meeting will be November 4, 2017 at Belleair Country Club. The event flyer has been emailed to everyone with email access. It is included in this Scuttlebutt for those who receive it by regular mail. And, of course, send in your 2018 dues before December 15th if you have not already paid.

Progressive Dinner

Irma may have changed our plans, but did not stop us from having a wonderful party at Alfano's!

Our original progressive dinner at member's homes had to be canceled due to evacuation, damage, etc.—However, we were spared the major brunt! We had so many kind and caring members who offered their homes for our dinner and I'd like to thank Sue Speck, Marcia Coxhead, Susan Dalrymple, Lucille Covino, Karen Bravo-Crews, Jan Nagy and Sue Moncrieff who couldn't have offered more. Thank you for your thoughtfulness. Though everything changed regarding home visits and food delivery, we did make it work after all.

I was out of town for 6 days and was aided during my absence by Eileen G. (reservations), Mary R. (name tags), Joan L. (invitations & Scuttlebutt) and Gene and Angie Traupman greeting guests at Alfano's.

It is wonderful how IEYC members reach out to be there for one another. We need MORE MEMBERS to get involved and take part in our programs. We need help for the Boat Parade, Committees, Events, Name Tags, etc. It's a great way to meet new friends.

All the reports I heard, clearly indicated the dinner was delicious and a huge success for 48 members. Unfortunately, I've been homebound and unable to attend. Thank you Linda Alfano for a great menu.

We are having a party planning meeting on Monday, October 30th, 7:00 PM at CYC. We NEED YOU there! We welcome your input for next year's programs!

So~til next time—Stay well and God Bless
Jan Nagy, October Event Chair
